The Shraman Foundation is awarding catalytic scholarship opportunities for deserving engineering students in India. Shraman Foundation scholarships are reserved for students who are coming from poor socio economic background with the annual family income of INR 2,50,000 or less. Focus will be on the students who fall into this income category and not receiving any financial assistance apart from the standard tuition fees subsidized by the central or state government. Students who are already receiving full scholarships available through various government schemes and private organizations will not be eligible for the support from Shraman Foundation.

The last date for online application is 30.12.2022.

Only undergraduates of 1st & 2nd years can apply, Applicants are required to apply online on the given link.
